Officials have been instructed to apply the unsportsmanlike behaviour rule to any racer using bad language. This will result in sanctions, ultimately leading to bans for repeated offences. All competitors must wear a properly fitting FIS approved safety helmet during training and competitions. Gloves and long sleeves must be worn at all times whilst on the slope including during open practice, course inspection and the race itself. Racers inspecting the course must wear skis and carry/wear bibs with number clearly visible. No one is allowed to ski the course during inspection. Coaches may accompany their racers on skis, as long as they have registered their accreditation.

COMPETITION RULES

These events are run under the FIS ICR (International Competition Regulations), amended and augmented by the appropriate British, and where applicable Member Group rules specifically ski length regulations as follows: {link to rules page}

Minimum Ski Length

SL Men 165cm – see note 1	SL Ladies 155cm
Children 2 SL/GS 130cm
Children 1 All Disciplines 130cm

Notes:

- 1) Jun 1 at FIS/ENL. Tolerance -10cm for males only
- 2) Ski Length must be marked on the ski

Ski lengths will be checked at these races and if skis are not of the appropriate length, the skier will be cautioned and any results will not count towards either the seeding list, the event results or the series results. There will be no tolerance for JN1 females – ski length for JN1 and above (females) is the required 155cm
